

RED CROSS GOES OVER TOP

THE QUOTA IS RAISED WITH A TOTAL OF $2083.

Gettysburg and Adams County Generously Do the Task Assigned Them for Suffering Japan.

The hearts of the people of Adams county dictate to the purse strings when the call of mercy comes, and the Japan-Relief Call demonstrated this fact in a most inspirational way. The minimum quota for Gettysburg and Adams county was fixed by the National Red Cross under the call of help made by the President at $2,000. The local Red Cross Home Service in charge of its chairman, Mrs. W. A. McClean, and its Secretary, Miss Margaret McMillan, took up the work of receiving the voluntary donations for stricken Japan. There was no canvassing, no door to door soliciting. The people of the county informed of the quota expected and where donations could be made, did their part. The appalling disaster to Japan made its own irresistible appeal and our people wanted to extend the helping hand and contributions began and have continued to flow into the hands of those receiving until Gettysburg and Adams county have gone over the top of their quota and are $83 to the good.

When the first call came for the funds from National Headquarters, urging immediate need of every dollar in hand, the local Red Cross Home Service was ready with half of the quota or $1,000, and a few days later $500 more was sent and the balance has gone forward.

Gettysburg contributed about one-half of the total or $917.46 and of this the Gettysburg churches gave $356.22, the organizations $177.79, and individuals $383.45, and of this latter sum $104.70 was received at the tables Sept. 8, or itemized as follows:

All three of the machines were pretty badly damaged, but fortunately only one of the occupants was injured. This was Miss Juanita Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ross, of Littlestown, formerly of Gettysburg, where Mr. Ross had been Supt. of the Panel Factory. Miss Ross was riding in a seven passenger Studebaker touring car driven by Paul Ramer, of Gettysburg. The other cars were a Ford touring, driven by Harry Reinecker, who resides on the William Panabaker farm near Scheivert's School-house, and a seven passenger Oldsmobile touring car belonging to Earl Arter who resides near Littlestown.

The Ford going towards Hanover and the Oldsmobile coming to Littlestown collided first, the latter machine being hurled against the Studebaker also traveling in the direction of Littlestown. The Oldsmobile was turned over but Mr. Arter and Malcolm Wintrobe, who was accompanying him, miraculously escaped injury. Miss Ross was cut about the face by flying glass when the windshield of the Studebaker car was broken. Accompanying Mr. Reinecker were his two daughters and housekeeper, Mrs. Rebecca Rahn. Miss Ross was taken to Hanover where her injuries were dressed.

The Oldsmobile was towed to Hanover Sunday night. The left front wheel and fenders were smashed and an axle bent. The Studebaker was also taken to Hanover. The front of this car was caved in, frame bent and windshield broken. The Ford car was brought to the Baschlar & Mehring garage where it was found it needed a new front axle, new wheel, new radius rod, front fender, bush shield, running board and new tire.

Hangs Unconscious by Ankles.

Raymond Stock, of Abbottstown, was working on the roof of a silo owned by Dr. T. C. Miller, by whom he is employed when he slipped and fell. At the edge of the roof his feet caught in the spouting and the young man hung suspended with his head downward.

He was alone at the time. His frantic calls for help brought no response and Stock slowly became unconscious as the blood rushed to his head. A short time later he was rescued by citizens who passed the silo and found him hanging from the roof, totally unconscious. Later he was seized by spasms but is reported to be recovering.

Mont Alto Tree Nursery.

Prof. George S. Perry in charge of the forest tree nursery at Mont Alto, has submitted an inventory to the Department of Forests and Waters at Harrisburg, showing that there are now 10,418,660 seedlings, transplants, and cuttings in the Mont Alto nursery. He states that the planting stock now in the nursery exceeds that of any previous year in the whole history of the nursery. The inventory of the last five years is given in the following table:

Year	Inventory (Number of Trees)
1919	3,670,917
1920	4,848,173
1921	6,585,144
1922	8,366,677
1923	10,418,660

It is estimated that the output for the Mont Alto Nursery during 1923 will be more than 4,500,000 trees. This greatly exceeds the distribution during any previous year. Much money has been saved the tree planters of the State by the operation of the Mont Alto nursery, for the trees are raised at a cost far less than that quoted by commercial nursery firms.

Cornerstone Laying.

The George Washington Masonic National Memorial, now being erected at Alexandria, Va., will house the priceless relics of the first president in possession of Washington-Alexandria Blue Lodge, No. 22, of which General Washington was the first Worshipful Master. These relics include the old clock that was in the bed chamber of the president on the night of his death and which was stopped at 10:20 p.m., the exact hour of death, by one of the attending physicians. They include also a "casket" given to the president by George Washington, the general's Masonic apron, his wedding gloves, farm spurs, pruning knife, pocket compass, and a folding instanter. The lodge also owns the portrait of Washington painted by William Verelstam, a Dutch artist, and the "father of his country," and which is a portrait from the portrait of the president by Gilbert Stuart.

Alexandria is almost a part of the city of Washington, D. C., and it is the intention of the lodge to erect the city and Mount Vernon. The memorial will be the greatest ever erected in honor of any man. Together with the endowment, it will cost $4,000,000. It will be on Snow's Hill, an eminence overlooking the country in which General Washington lived most of his life. It will be 200 feet high, 230 feet in depth and 160 feet wide.

The cornerstone of the memorial will be laid Thursday, Nov. 1, amid most impressive ceremonies. It is expected that the greatest number of Masons ever assembled in any city at any one time will be on hand for the ceremonies. All railroads are offering reduced rates to those who journey to Washington, D. C., for the cornerstone laying.

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS

"HOOSIER"

WHILE Indiana is known throughout the country as the "Hoosier State," the origin of the term "hoosier" is lost somewhere in the strange changes which came over the English language as spoken in this country during the early part of the last century. When the number of uneducated persons and the different nationalities which comprised the United States at this time is remembered, it is not strange that some words slipped into the colloquial tongue without proper parentage.

Etimologists, however, are about equally divided as to whether "hoosier" is a contraction of the phrase "Who's there?" commonly used as a challenge among the early settlers of the Middle West or whether it comes from "Hushier," frequently lengthened to "hoosier," a nickname for the lumbermen who were skilled in hushing or stilling their opponents during an encounter. The word "whoosier" appears in American literature as early as 1639 and appears to be derived from the Scotch "whush" or "whisper," possibly with the added American meaning connected with the lumbermen, many of whom settled in the section now known as Indiana.

Odd Displays of Politeness.

The forms of courtesy and civility in Far Eastern countries have always been of the most extravagant nature. Abraham bowed himself to the ground to show his respect to strangers. So much time was taken up with polite salutation it is no wonder that when Elisha sent his servant in great haste on an errand he warned him, "If thou meet any man salute him not, and if any man salute thee answer him not again," there being no time to waste in ceremony. The Arab of today begins to bow as soon as he perceives a friend in the distance, inquires over and over again regarding the health of the family, kisses his own hand, kisses his friend's beard and gives thanks to Allah that they are once more permitted to meet.

AUTOCASTER

"YES HE WENT WITH THE WIDOW FOR TEN YEARS - HE DIDN'T PROPOSE TO HER BECAUSE SHE HAD MONEY. OH NO! IT WAS BECAUSE HE DIDN'T HAVE ANY."

"YES AND THEY WERE MARRIED - AN' THEY NO MORE THAN PAIRED OFF 'TIL THEY SQUARED OFF. THE BATTLE STARTED WHEN HE STOPPED CALLING HER THE LIGHT OF HIS LIFE - SHE WAS PUT OUT."

SOMEONE TOLD HIM THAT SHE WAS PRETTY AS A PICTURE - BUT HE WAS ALWAYS CRAZY ABOUT ANYTHING HAND PAINTED - SEEING ISN'T ALWAYS BELIEVING. SHE SAW HIM BUT DIDN'T BELIEVE HIM -

"SHALL WE HAVE DINNER NOW?"

"HADN'T WE BETTER WAIT UNTIL YOUR HUSBAND GETS THROUGH TALKING TO EBNER?"

"NO INDEED! I'D STARVE IF I WAITED UNTIL MIDNIGHT TO EAT!"
